Report of the Commissioners,

Appointed by the Legislature of Kentucky to Divide the Wards of the City of Louisville into Voting Precincts.

By an act of the General Assembly of Kentucky, passed and approved the 1st day of March, 1860, the Acting Mayor of the city of Louisville, John L. Hemling, William P. Boone, James W. Henning, Thos. L. Jefferson, Ben. J. Adams, Thos. H. Hunt, and G. T. May were appointed Commissioners, a majority of whom shall be competent to act, to divide the several Wards of the city of Louisville (including the town of Portland) into Voting Precincts, in conformity to the act relating thereto.

The undersigned having been duly sworn now make the following report:

FIRST WARD.

We have divided the First Ward of the city of Louisville into five precincts, viz:

The voting place of the said Precinct shall be at Gay's lumber office, on Fulton street, above Cabell street.

The Second Precinct of the First Ward shall commence at Beargrass creek, and in the center of Wenzel or Braddock street, when extended, and from thence southwardly along the center of said Braddock or Wenzel street to the line of taxation, and with this line eastwardly and northeastwardly, &c., until it strikes Beargrass creek, at and about the Cut-off, and thence down the creek to the place of beginning. The place of voting shall be at Fred. Webber's, on the north side of Main street, between Buchanan and Cabell streets.

The Third Precinct of the First Ward shall commence at the creek, in the intersection of Wenzel or Braddock street, and from thence southwardly along the center of said street to Market street, thence westwardly down the center of Market street to the center of Hancock street, and thence northwardly in the center of Hancock street to the creek, and with the creek eastwardly to the beginning. And the place of voting in this precinct shall be at the northwest corner of Main and Campbell streets.

The Fourth Precinct of the First Ward shall commence at the intersection of Market and Wenzel streets, and from thence southwardly along the center of Wenzel street to the center of Walnut street, thence westwardly down the centre of Walnut street to the intersection of Hancock street thence northwardly along the center of Hancock street, to the intersection of Market street, and thence eastwardly in the center of Market street to the beginning. The place of voting in this Precinct shall be at the lumber office of Daniel Laveille, on the northeast corner of Green and Clay streets.

The Fifth Precinct of the First Ward shall commence at the intersection of Walnut and Wenzel streets, thence southwardly along the center of Wenzel street to the line of taxation between the city and county, thence westwardly with the said line to the intersection of Hancock street, thence northwardly along the center of Hancock street to the intersection of Walnut street, thence eastwardly up the center of Walnut street to the beginning. The place of voting in this Precinct shall be at the northwest corner of Chestnut and Clay streets.

SECOND WARD.

We have divided the Second Ward into three Precincts, as follows:

The voting place of this precinct shall be at Hagerman's saddlery shop, on the north side of Market street, between Preston and Jackson streets.

The Second Precinct of the Second Ward shall commence at the intersection of Jefferson and Hancock streets, and from thence southwardly along the center of Hancock street to the intersection of Madison street, thence westwardly down the center of Madison street to the intersection of Floyd street, and thence northwardly in the center of Floyd street to the intersection of Jefferson street, and thence eastwardly up the center of Jefferson street to the beginning. The voting place of this precinct shall be at Dr. Colin's office, on the south side of Green street, west of, and next door to the corner of Jackson street.

The place of voting in this Precinct shall be at Chickeringe's, on the southeast corner of Gray and Hancock streets.

THIRD WARD.

We have divided the Third Ward into two Precincts, as follows:

The First Precinct of the Third Ward commences at the center of Preston street on the Ohio river, and from thence southwardly along the central line of Preston street to the intersection of Jefferson street, thence down the center of Jefferson street, westwardly to Floyd street, thence northwardly along the center of Floyd street to the center of Market street, and thence westwardly down the center of Market street to the intersection of First street, and from thence northwardly along the center of First street to the Ohio river, and from this point up the river to the beginning. The place of this Precinct shall be held on the west side of Brook street, between Main and Market streets, now occupied by Baker & Rubell, and owned by Rev. Mr. Holman.

THE EVIL DAY HAS COME!

ANOTHER SMASH UP.

MORE SECESSIONS!

National Democratic Party Dissolved!

The grand catastrophe, so long feared, has at last come. The Douglasites have accomplished the object for which they have so long and so earnestly labored—the destruction of the National Democratic party. The adoption of the majority report, without material alteration, was an outrage on the dignity and rights of the South that could not be brooked, and the result was the withdrawal of Virginia and other Southern States from the Convention. The late hour at which we write this (2 o'clock A. M.) precludes further comments, and we have only to refer the reader to the telegraphic dispatches in another column for the full particulars.

IMPORTANT TO STEAMBOATMEN AND OTHERS USING MACHINERY RUN BY STEAM.—We publish in another column a decision of the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of Alabama, by which it is settled that the use of the metallic packing for steam engines, is an infringement of a patent right granted to one Cox, in 1849, and transferred to Wm. J. Mathews, of Mobile, in 1859. Those who have this packing in use will, perhaps, consult their own interest, by calling on Mr. Hosea Shaw, at Dennis Long's Union Foundry, in this city, who is the authorized agent of Wm. J. Mathews.

☞ The commencement exercises of Georgetown College occur next Thursday, when seventeen addresses will be delivered out of a class of thirty-six. The annual exhibition of Science Hill Female Seminary takes place Wednesday.—Examinations are now going on at both institutions. The baccalaureat sermon will be made to-morrow by Dr. D. R. Campbell, and on Tuesday and Wednesday nights addresses will be delivered before the Alumni and Literary Societies. Georgetown will be quite attractive during the next week.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST'S DAY.—The birth of St. John the Baptist, June 24th, will be commemorated in Christ's Church by the proper service for the day, and by a collection for the orphans. In the evening the Rector will continue his Lectures on the Christian Creed. The public is invited to both services.

LADIES BEWARE!—A lady who moves in the first circles of society in this city had her face sadly discolored, a few days since, from the combined effects of fluid whitening and artesian water. Happens that she went to the well and bathed, and, after leaving the delicious bath, she found to her horror and amazement that her face was as black as an Ethiopian's.

MR. TEN BROECK.—This gentleman is the widest known American now in Europe, but we understand he is likely to be eclipsed, for they have in California a Mr. Eleven Broeck, who is said to be one degree above the celebrated turfite in all those excellences that have made him distinguished.

PROBABLE FATAL AFFRAY.—A difficulty occurred at the Commercial Hotel, yesterday morning, between Mr. Redman, the clerk, and a boarder named Wagner, in which the latter was so severely cut about the head and shoulders that it is thought the wounds will prove fatal.

☞ The Postmaster General has established new postoffices in this State at Geneva, Henderson county; George's Creek, Lawrence county; Argyrite, Greenup county; Oakland Mills, Nicholas county; Antioch, Washington county, and Fort Jefferson, Ballard county.

FAILURES.—We received no St. Louis papers last night, either by mail or express. From some cause or other our Baltimore letters, which come by Adams' great express, failed to reach us yesterday.

☞ We have heard it intimated that Thos. S. Page, Esq., of Carroll, will be the Constitutional-Union-K.N.-P.U. candidate for the Appellate Clerkship. If he is, he will be whipped a good deal worse this time than he was by Grant Green last August.

☞ See notice of Masonic Pic-nic.

ARRESTED.—John Donnivan and Dennis Collins have been arrested at Cincinnati as the supposed murderers of the late Professor Crawley.

☞ Hon. Thomas C. M'Creery, of Daviess county, one of the most eloquent Democratic orators in the State, was in the city yesterday.

☞ The Fifth Annual Fair of the Harrison County Agricultural Society will be held at Cynthiana, commencing on the 8th of September and continuing four days.

Clerks.

We constantly hear of strikes and rebellion among the workmen of the different mechanical trades, and even common laborers refuse to be driven beyond measure, but will rise up and protest against oppression—but the patient, toil-worn and weary occupant of the desk seldom gives voice to complaint, and toils on in silent suffering. The pale and anxious faces which one meets hurrying by, over pavements "hot as burning plow-shares," to their fatal posts, tell but too surely that unremitting work

Pens, that have traced the ponderous ledger, have likewise traced lines that have set the world aglow—and a clerk of the India House gave to literature the essays of the gentle Elia. The most important reforms in the Chancery of England owe their origin to an humble clerk, and Granville Sharp exposed the horrors of the middle passage, and gave efficient aid to the suppression of the African slave trade. The virtues of this class have always been gentle and unobtrusive, and they have suffered silent wrong so patiently, that active philanthopists have scarcely discovered anything in their condition requiring reform. But we know better, and we know many a successful business that owes its success to "confidential clerks," for the "head of the house" has capital, but little capacity, and money but very indifferent morals; and yet they enjoy a wide reputation and reap a rich harvest from the brains of others, and these others they give but a meagre support, and would not have them seen in their drawing-rooms and never invite them to a little fresh air at their country seats.

Our object in commencing this paragraph was to suggest some relaxing, and a diminution of the working hours of business houses during the hot summer months, and we think it will be alike advantageous to all parties. Let the clerks have a few hours in the afternoon, to escape from the heat and noisome atmosphere of the city into the green fields, and breathe again the free air of the country; for most of them fed up on it in childhood, and it would have a life-giving and health-restoring influence upon their jaded spirits.

The reflection will come to the wealthy employer, as he luxuriates at the watering place, or in his suburban villa, that his dependents likewise can enjoy the evening breeze, that cools and refreshes his parched and aching brow.

More Richmonds in the Field.

Our advertising columns this morning contain the announcements of Brent Hopkins, of Oldham, and Clinton McClarty, of Daviess, as candidates for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Better men, better Democrats, or gentlemen better qualified for the position, are not to be found in the State. We only regret that all the aspirants cannot have the place. But while the gentlemen named are our warm personal and political friends, and we would not willingly omit an opportunity to aid them in their aspirations, yet the peculiar circumstances existing just now, constrain us to believe that the nomination and election are due to Col. Bolling over and above all others, and in this position we feel confident we will be overwhelmingly seconded by the Democracy of the State.

As the time previous to the election is so short, we had hoped that the candidacy would have been given to Bolling without contest. The Convention will have to decide the matter, and in the correctness of its decision, if it is at all fully and fairly constituted, we have every confidence.

THEATER.—To-night is the last night of the season, and the benefit of Mr. Marcus Elmore, the leading man of the theater. Mr. Elmore is deservedly one of the most popular, and by far the best leading man we have ever had with us. There is no member of the company who has had a more difficult line of business to fulfill, and we can truly say, that in whatever character he has been cast, he has given it careful consideration, and in no one instance has he been at fault. Conscientious, pains-taking, and careful in even the most unimportant part which he has been called upon to sustain, he has won the respect and regard of the habitues of the theater, one and all. His style of acting, quiet and finished, is one that never fails in begetting an ever increasing popularity. In the various characters which he has been called on to delineate, during an unusually long season, there are many in which he has fairly divided the honors with some of the great stars of the profession. It will not be readily forgotten that Mr. Elmore, as Ingomar, excited more attention and interest than the truly great actress, Miss Davenport, in her effective part of Parthenia. As John Middlemay, Chateau Renaud, and many other creations of the drama, which we need not mention, Mr. Elmore stands almost unrivalled. We hope that for the praiseworthy efforts which this estimable actor has made during the past season, and in recognition of his merits as an accomplished artiste, that he will be greeted with an overflowing house.

CHEAP INSURANCE—CONTINENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY, 18 Wall Street, New York.—The next dividend declared by this Company to the policy holders, will occur on the 1st July, 1860, and will be equal to any former dividend, not less than 50 per cent. on amount of earned premium. The Company will also pay 6 per cent. interest in cash in the scrip dividends of 1857, '58, and '59. It is calculated that the scrip of 1857 will be paid in full on 1st July of next year (1861.) The Company is now in possession of a cash capital and surplus, on 1st June, amounting to the sum of $346,573, which is an increase or accumulation since 1857, of $317,715.

The Continental takes risks on buildings, merchandise, household furniture, rents, leases, and other insurable property at the same rates charged by other solvent institutions, with the additional advantage and inducement to policy holders of participating in the profits of the Company, thereby reducing the cost of insurance one-half. The agents of this city, Messrs. S. Kennedy & Bro., are prepared to issue participating policies to any one wishing to insure.

ANTIQUARIAN RESEARCHES IN KENTUCKY.—A meeting of the friends of science is called for this evening in the reception room of the Galt House. We trust that all citizens disposed to promote this important scientific movement will attend the meeting. Some important facts will be developed, and much information communicated on a subject concerning which so little is known by the public generally. The present movement by the American Association for the Advancement of Science—the only scientific body with a national reputation in this country—to explore our local antiquities, is one eminently deserving the attention of all intelligent citizens. The proposed meeting is to secure some action for cooperating with the Scientific Association.

The news was that the Convention would in all probability break up, and the great Democratic party be numbered among the things that were. That is really what the Enquirer and the Douglasites have long been laboring for. They do not care one jot for the integrity of the party if their favorite can be advanced.

M. DE HUE.—The Paris papers notice the death of this distinguished oriental traveler and Jesuit Missionary—his travels, published some years ago, was a most vivid and interesting account of the interior of Thibet, Cochin-China, and of Pekin and China proper. His books had almost extensive circulation, and were translated into almost all the languages of Europe.

Woodlawn Trotting Races.

FIFTH DAY.

Yesterday the attractions at Woodlawn drew a large crowd, including many of the fairest belles of Kentucky. The track was in splendid condition, and the races were very exciting. For the first race there were five entries. Lady Woodlawn, Flora, Dick Turpin, Kate C., and Capt. Megowan. When the bell rang the horses were brought out, harnessed, and trotted up and down before the stand several times, and when called up for the start it was discovered that Capt. Megowan had cut his right fore foot badly, and permission to draw him was granted by the judges.

FIRST RACE.

For the first heat the horses started well together, and it was well contested by Lady Woodlawn, Flora, and Dick Turpin—Kate C. being left a long way behind. After making the first turn, Lady Woodlawn had the lead, which she maintained throughout the heat, coming in winner, Flora second, Dick Turpin third, and Kate C. dist

DAILY COURIER.

LOUISVILLE.

SATURDAY MORNING ..... JUNE 23.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS,

R. R. BOLLING.

The Eastern Mail.

For several months past the Journal has been loud and persistent in its denunciation of the Postmaster General, for sending the Eastern mail to this city by the New Albany instead of the Jeffersonville Railroad. Although we have known these strictures to be undeserved and unjust, we have not thought it necessary to reply to them, as the facts in the case are generally well known here.

There is no question that the proper, natural, and quickest route for the Eastern mail to come here is via Jeffersonville Railroad, and for the Western mail via New Albany Railroad. But the records of the postoffice here will show that since the change from the Jeffersonville to the New Albany road, the mails have been quite as uniform and regular in their receipt here as they were previously. The following statement, furnished us by the President of the New Albany road is to the point:

From February 14 to June 15, 1860, two hundred and twenty-four trains have arrived at our depot. There have been delays of over thirty minutes and less than two hours, five times only, and over two hours, eight times only.

Of these the Ohio and Mississippi Road caused the delay five times. There was a failure at Cincinnati in delivering the mails at the cars twice, and once, at least, the mails were carried to St. Louis, and returned from there, and four times the delay has been caused by severe storms that interrupted the trains on most of the railroads. With these exceptions our trains have arrived with great regularity as much so as most of the railroads of the country.

The following card from the same gentlemen, which has already been published, will serve to put the matter in a clear light:

Will you allow me, through your columns, to correct several statements made in an editorial of this morning's Journal, relative to the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad carrying the mails? Not only are many of the Journal's statements entirely without foundation, but the spirit in which they are made, demands correction and reproof.

The Journal complains that under the new time, which went into effect Sunday last, the detention—which, says the Journal, was serious before—was much greater." It continues:

The Jeffersonville railroad would bring one Eastern mail at half past nine in the evening, and the New Albany road brings the same mail at about nine o'clock in the morning.

The mails leave Cincinnati at 4:25 A. M. and 5:30 P. M. The 5:30 P. M. train out of Cincinnati connects with the night train at Seymour, and arrives at Jeffersonville at 12:30 midnight. The same train connects at Mitchell with the Louisville Express train, and the mail arrives at New Albany at 6:45 A. M. It is delivered at the Louisville postoffice before 9 A. M., being in as good time for business purposes as by the Jeffersonville road, which cannot deliver it before 1:30 A. M., instead of 9 P. M., which the Journal speaks of.

Again: the morning mail out of Cincinnati, at 4:25, is delivered at New Albany road at 1:40 in New Albany, or, 2:30 the same afternoon. In Louisville. By the Jeffersonville road the same mail would be delivered at Jeffersonville at 12:30 P. M., at Louisville at 1:30 P. M., just one hour sooner. We therefore find that one mail is delivered an hour behind time by the New Albany road as by the Jeffersonville route, while the other is only one hour behind! So much for the Cincinnati mail; now for the St. Louis mail.

The mail leaves St. Louis at 7 A. M. and 7:20 P. M. The 7 o'clock mail arrives at New Albany at 7:30 P. M., while it takes until 8:30 P. M. to get it to Jeffersonville; one hour gain for the New Albany route on that mail. The 7:20 P. M. mail out of St. Louis, arrives at New Albany at 6:35 A. M. and at 12:30 P. M. at Jeffersonville, six hours and thirty-five minutes behind, and that during business hours!

Now let us see on the Cincinnati mails, the New Albany route foots up just one business hour behind, on one mail, and even on the other. On the St. Louis mail, the Jeffersonville road is one business hour behind on one mail and six hours and fifteen minutes behind on the other, so that the total gain of business hours to the Louisville citizens is four and one-fourth by the New Albany route!

Now, regarding distances: The Journal says:

The difference in route is 89 miles in favor of the Jeffersonville road.

From the distances published on the tables of the different roads we compile the following:

Cincinnati to Mitchell	127	Miles.
Mitchell to New Albany	61	"
Total	188	"
Cincinnati to Seymour	87	Miles,
Seymour to Jeffersonville	49	"
Difference in Distance	52
Instead of 89, a difference of 28 miles, one hour's time.
St. Louis to Seymour	233	Miles.
Seymour to Jeffersonville	49	"
Total	282	"
St. Louis to Mitchell	213	Miles,
Mitchell to New Albany	61	"
Difference in favor of New Albany route	28	"

And now a word regarding the out mails from Louisville.

The mails going to Cincinnati or St. Louis are put upon the same train, on the Ohio and Mississippi road, whether they are sent by the New Albany or the Jeffersonville road, and arrive at Cincinnati at the same time.

The Journal concludes by stating that the mails miss every Tuesday. There is no foundation whatever for this statement. The Tuesday morning train was detained several hours because the conductor and engineer, in pursuance of instructions, ran with caution on account of the dreadful storm that raged during the night, thereby insuring safety to the train, mails and passengers committed to their charge.

But without knowing them all, we feel entirely assured that the Postmaster-General has abundantly good reasons for pursuing the course he has done. The officers of the Jeffersonville road are our personal friends, and we do not desire to say one word against that road or its management, but we are constrained to state that their action in regard to the mails is by no means blameless.

As at present arranged, the Eastern mail that arrives here at 3 P. M., in ample time for all Southern connections, is only about one hour behind the time of the Jeffersonville road. While the Eastern mail that arrives at 8 or 9 A. M., by New Albany, would not reach here by Jeffersonville until 2 o'clock P. M., as the latter road has no connection with the train on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad that brings it to Seymour.

The contracts for carrying the mails are for one daily mail six times a week. The finances of the Department will not permit of two daily mails, and the Louisville, New Albany, and Chicago railroad carry the mails thirteen times a week, giving a morning and evening mail to the citizens both to the East and the West. On the regular daily mail trains a mail agent accompanies the mail; on the other trains the baggage men are sworn as regular mail carriers. So far as the Louisville, New Albany, and Chicago railroad is concerned, no censure can be properly attributed to it. It has done its whole duty, and if the Jeffersonville road had gone to work properly, we have no doubt it would long since have been carrying the mails it desires.

The Douglas Party in Louisiana, by an Anti-Douglas Journal.

The New Orleans Courier thus speaks of the Douglas patry of Louisiana:

"Besides the journals in the interest of Know Nothingism, and of every combination calculated to overwhelm the Democracy, which are now supporting and upholding the cause of Douglas in Louisiana, we must mention all the pseudo-Democrats—Forneyites and Buckmanites—who have been driven into the Opposition ranks by their immoderate love for office.—Among these are to be found two ex-Ministers, one ex-Collector of the Port, one ex-Superintendent of the Mint, and other fishes of a similar stripe, too numerous to mention. Disappointed candidates for Surveyor, Postmaster, Port Warden, Custom House Collector, and a whole tribe of discomfitted office-seekers have swollen the ranks. These, with their Know Nothing allies, constitute the Douglas army in Louisiana—the same which, under the banner of Wells at the last Gubernatorial election, was signally routed and demoralized. They put in digest by the Democratic cohorts under Governor Moore."

The hidden motive of this faction is then said by the Courier to be hatred to Mr. Slidell, "whose high qualities of fidelity to party and friends, whose magnanimity and generosity" the Courier eloquently depicts.

BLACKBERRY WINE.—The Paris Citizen publishes the following recipe, which it says makes the best blackberry wine ever tasted:

RECEIPT FOR MAKING BLACKBERRY WINE.—Press the berries through a seive, and while doing so, pour a little water over them, in order to get all the juice from them, then strain the juice through a flannel cloth, put three pounds of sugar to one gallon of the liquor, then put it into stone jars, uncovered or a very thin cloth over it, until fermentation ceases, which will take six or eight weeks, skim it carefully every day, or oftner, bottle and seal it up tight.

RETURN MAIL BAGS TO THE POSTOFFICE.—It happens that a considerable number of canvas sacks and other mail bags, from the nature of the service for which they are used, become frequently mislaid and fall into the possession of persons who use them and neglect to return them to the Postoffice Department. By act of 31st August, 1852, it is made a penal offense, punishable with fine and imprisonment, to "steal, purloin, embezzle, or appropriate to any other than its proper use, or for any lucre or gain convey away any mailbags to the hindrance or detriment of the public service."—[Washington Constitution.

The Two Reports

THE MINORITY REPORT.

The following is the minority report in full of the Committee on Credentials:

The Committee upon Credentials respectfully report: That prior to the adjournment of the Convention at Charleston, on the 3d of May last, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That when this Convention adjourns to-day, it be adjourned to reassemble at Baltimore June 18, and that it be respectfully recommended to the Democratic party of the several States to make provision for supplying all vacancies in their repective delegations to this Convention when it shall reassemble.

On the reassembling of this Convention at Baltimore the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the credentials of all persons claiming seats in the Convention made vacant by the secession of delegates at Charleston be referred to the Committee on Credentials, and said committee is hereby instructed, as soon as possible, to examine the same and report names of persons entitled to such seats.

By the further order of the Convention, the claims of all other persons claiming seats were also referred to your committee. Your committee found that the delegation of the several States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and Florida had become wholly vacant by reason of the secession of the entire original delegations, the States of Georgia, Arkansas and Delaware had become vacant in part only from the same cause. In no other State had there been any secession, but individual seats were contested in delegations from the States of Massachusetts and Missouri. Aside from the above, no question touching the seats of delegates was brought to the notice of your committee. After a patient and full investigation, your committee are of opinion that the persons hereinafter named in the resolutions which are herewith submitted as part of this report, are entitled to any entitled to seats as delegates in this Convention, and they respectfully recommend that they be so received by this Convention.

From the State of Florida no credentials of any delegates were presented to your committee. From Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana contesting claimants appeared. From Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, and Arkansas the rappeared contesting claimants for all the vacant seats. Of the following votes of which the State of Arkansas is entitled, the now sitting delegates represent one vote. The claims of the representing the remaining three votes had become vacant by secession of the original delegates. The seats were all contested, one set of contestants consisting of six persons, and the other set of three persons. Your committee are of the opinion that all of these contestants should be admitted to seats as delegates, with power to cast the vote declared in the resolution herewith reported in that behalf.

In the Fifth Congressional District of Massachusetts it appeared that B. F. Hallett and another person were appointed delegates to this Convention, and E. T. Chaffee and another person appointed substitutes; that Hallett, not being able to attend at Charleston, notified Mr. Chaffee of the fact, who thereupon proceeded to Charleston, presented his credentials and was duly admitted to his seat, which he continued to fill at the time of the adjournment of the Convention to Baltimore. Upon the reassembling of the Convention at Baltimore Mr. Hallett appeared, claimed his seat which he had awarded to Mr. Chaffee, and receiving the entrance ticket from the chairman of the Massachusetts delegation, actually took possession of this seat. Your committee are of the opinion that when Mr. Hallett had notified Mr. Chaffee that he could not fulfill his duties as delegate, and Mr. Chaffee, repairing to Charleston, had been duly accredited to this convention, his rights to the seat became absolute, were not subjected to be superseded at the pleasure of Mr. Hallett, and that Mr. Chaffee is now the rightful delegate to this Convention.

In the Eighth Electoral District of Missouri, the facts are precisely parallel to the above Massachusetts case, the only difference is that Mr. Johnson's wardy having been elected delegate and John O'Fallon, Jr., having been elected alternate. Your committee, for the reasons above stated, are of opinion that Mr. O'Fallon is now the rightful delegate. In regard to the contesting claimants from Georgia, your committee have not been in possession of sufficient evidence to enable them to make a report to the respective parties presented a great variety as well as complex facts and questions touching the right of either party to seats. Your committee, in attempting to solve these difficulties, encountered embarrassments on every hand. After a most patient consideration of the whole matter, it seemed to your committee that the only way of reaching a satisfactory adjustment is to admit to seats both delegations, with power to each of said delegations to cast one-half of the vote of the State in the manner expressed in the resolutions herewith submitted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed.) JOHN M. KRUM, Chairman.

THE MINORITY REPORT.

The following are the minority resolutions offered by Mr. Stevens, of Oregon:

To the President of the Democratic National Convention: SIR: We, the undersigned, members of the Committee on Credentials, feel constrained to dissent from many of the views and a large portion of the action of the majority of the Committee in respect to the rights of delegates to seats, referred to them by the Convention, and do respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That Alfred E. Hallett is entitled to a seat in this Convention as delegate from the Fifth Congressional District of the State of Massachusetts.

2. Resolved, That Johnson B. Gardy is entitled to a seat in this Convention as delegate from the Eighth Congressional District of the State of Missouri.

3. Resolved, That Jno. A. Bayard and Wm. G. Whilden are entitled to seats in this Convention as delegates from Delaware.

4. Resolved, That the delegation headed by R. W. Thompson are entitled to seats in this Convention as delegates from Arkansas.

5. Resolved, That the delegation of which G. M. Bryan is chairman, are entitled to seats in this Convention from Texas.

6. Resolved, That the delegation of which John Tod is chairman, are entitled to seats in this Convention as delegates from Louisiana.

7. Resolved, That the delegation of which L. P. Walker is chairman, are entitled to seats in this Convention as delegates from Alabama.

8. Resolved, That the delegation of which Henry L. Benning is Chairman was entitled to seats in the Convention as delegates from Georgia.

9. Resolved, That the delegation from the State of Florida accredited to the Charleston Convention are invited to take seats in this Convention, and cast the vote of the State of Florida.

Signed, Isaac J. Stevens, Oregon.
A. A. Speer, New Jersey.
H. M. North, Pennsylvania.
John H. Bewley, Delaware.
E. H. Hubbard, Virginia.
R. R. Bridges, North Carolina.
Wm. H. Carroll, Tennessee.
George H. Morrow, Kentucky.
D. S. Gregory, California.

In the points of difference between the majority and minority report of the Committee on Credentials, I concur in the conclusions of the minority report in the case of Georgia, Alabama, Missouri, and Massachusetts.

Signed, Aaron V. Hughes, New Hampshire.

SUPPOSED SUICIDE OF AN EX-MAYOR OF NEW ORLEANS.—The disappearance of Charles M. Waterman, ex-Mayor of the city, is the topic of intense interest. Mr. Waterman had a universal acquaintance and many warm friends. He left his residence on Thursday last, and has not since been heard of. Circumstances have since transpired to show that he was laboring under great nervous excitement, and was in deep distress of mind. A note which he left has given rise to the painful belief that he meant to destroy himself; and nothing has transpired to relieve the apprehension. When he left he was certainly in a state of distraction to give grounds for fearing the worst.

The failure of the respectable and old established firm of which he was a member, which went to protest on the day of his disappearance, was the culminating calamity to which distraction is traced. He was a man of acute sensibilities, great pride of character and position, and quick impulsiveness of action, liberal, warm hearted, and highly esteemed.

Since writing the above, we learn that, at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, a hat was found on board the Second District ferry boat, plying to Algiers, which was this morning brought to the Second District Police Station, and is fully identified as belonging to Mr. Waterman. It was found under the seat where he had been engaged, and a force employed to search the river and both banks for his body.—[N. O. Picayune, Tuesday.

SALE OF MULES.—There was quite a stir among the mule breeders on Tuesday, and we hear of several sales at high prices. Col. V. M. Kenney sold to J. H. Chiles, of Fayette, 71 two year olds for $14,909 or $183.10 per head. Frank Ford sold 100, same age, to the same buyer, at $189 per head. John McClintock sold to John Evans, of Fayette, 83 at $200 per head. We also hear of a sale by Ben. B. Groom, of Clarke, of 110 two year olds at $175 per head, to Geo. Hall & Co., of the same county.

These are the top prices though the stock was, of course, of the usual value. The market opens considerably better than it did last year.—[Paris Citizen, 22d.

RUNAWAY SLAVE.—Mr. Hollis, from Boone county, Ky., was in the city yesterday in search of a runaway negro, who has been missing since Monday, and may, he thinks, believe to have been enticed away by a book peddler, who was about the premises the Saturday previous. No findings, however, could be obtained of the unsconced chattels and effects, and Mr. Hollis returned home satisfied that he has been passed through upon the underground railroad.—[Cincinnati Commercial.

DASTARDLY.—The Manitowoc Pilot says that a Lutheran pretending to be sick went to the house of the Catholic priest in the town of Eaton, Manitowoc county. The staid there several days and was taken care of by the benevolent priest, but one morning he turned up missing. Shortly after he le t, it was found that the priest's room had been entered, and $340 in cash, a gold watch, gold cross, gold finger rings, and other articles, had been stolen.

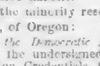
WATCHES, CLOCKS, AND JEWELRY,

420 (OLD NO. 426) MARKET STREET,

Between Fourth and Fifth.

LOUISVILLE.....KENTUCKY.



I would take this opportunity to inform my old patrons and the public in general, that after several years' absence I am again entered into the above business, at my old and well known stand, and am prepared to sell from a well selected and large stock of goods, at fair prices, to all who may favor me with a call, and I would respectfully solicit the patronage of my former customers, feeling well satisfied from what transpired to show that he was laboring under great nervous excitement, and was in deep distress of mind. A note which he left has given rise to the painful belief that he meant to destroy himself; and nothing has transpired to relieve the apprehension. When he left he was certainly in a state of distraction to give grounds for fearing the worst.

The failure of the respectable and old established firm of which he was a member, which went to protest on the day of his disappearance, was the culminating calamity to which distraction is traced. He was a man of acute sensibilities, great pride of character and position, and quick impulsiveness of action, liberal, warm hearted, and highly esteemed.

Since writing the above, we learn that, at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, a hat was found on board the Second District ferry boat, plying to Algiers, which was this morning brought to the Second District Police Station, and is fully identified as belonging to Mr. Waterman. It was found under the seat where he had been engaged, and a force employed to search the river and both banks for his body.—[N. O. Picayune, Tuesday.

SALE OF MULES.—There was quite a stir among the mule breeders on Tuesday, and we hear of several sales at high prices. Col. V. M. Kenney sold to J. H. Chiles, of Fayette, 71 two year olds for $14,909 or $183.10 per head. Frank Ford sold 100, same age, to the same buyer, at $189 per head. John McClintock sold to John Evans, of Fayette, 83 at $200 per head. We also hear of a sale by Ben. B. Groom, of Clarke, of 110 two year olds at $175 per head, to Geo. Hall & Co., of the same county.

These are the top prices though the stock was, of course, of the usual value. The market opens considerably better than it did last year.—[Paris Citizen, 22d.

RUNAWAY SLAVE.—Mr. Hollis, from Boone county, Ky., was in the city yesterday in search of a runaway negro, who has been missing since Monday, and may, he thinks, believe to have been enticed away by a book peddler, who was about the premises the Saturday previous. No findings, however, could be obtained of the unsconced chattels and effects, and Mr. Hollis returned home satisfied that he has been passed through upon the underground railroad.—[Cincinnati Commercial.

DASTARDLY.—The Manitowoc Pilot says that a Lutheran pretending to be sick went to the house of the Catholic priest in the town of Eaton, Manitowoc county. The staid there several days and was taken care of by the benevolent priest, but one morning he turned up missing.

BEG LEAVE TO INFORM ALL THOSE ENGAGED in Farming and Gardening that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of this highly valuable MANURE, and would respectfully solicit a liberal share of public patronage.

In England, Germany, and the Eastern States of this country, this kind of Manure has been used for many years with the greatest success. The best way to use it is to strew from 40 to 50 pounds per acre in the fall, and plow as deep as is practicable; but it may be profitably applied in two pounds in the bottom of each hole for Corn and Tobacco, put a handful in each hill; for Potatoes, Celery, &c., put in the trench before the furrows. One of the principal advantages with this Manure is in the hauling of it—the farmer being enabled to take at one load, in a two-horse wagon, the equivalent of twenty to twenty-five loads of horse or common stable Manure.

I can furnish any desired quantity at the shortest notice.

I take pleasure in announcing to the public that have been appointed

SOLE AGENT IN THE WEST

FOR THE SALE OF THE WORLD-RENOWNED

PIANOS

From the Manufactory of

S. & P. ERARD,

Paris, France.

THIS MANUFACTORY WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1779, and having been in successful operation from that time to the present, needs no further recommendation of the best pianists for the character of the work. It turns out Square, Upright, and Grand Pianos, with Sostenente, De Meyer, &c., give these instruments their unqualified and unequivocal approbation and recommend a trial as being the very admirable to give the compositions of the great masters their fullest interpretations.

These instruments have been finished with express reference to this climate and this market, and the attention of Professors and Amateurs is called to them in all confidence that better Pianos cannot be made, acquire, and never been seen in this part of the world. They are full octaves, 7 stringed in a note, rosewood cases, finished in the highest style of elegance, and may be had in any color of fine French cloth lined with chamois leather.

The public are respectfully invited to call and examine these instruments at the CENTRAL or NEW MUSIC HOUSE, No. 610 West Jefferson street (old No. 474), north side, between Third and Fourth streets.

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,

BROADWAY,

NEW YORK.

WHEN completed, six years ago, the ST. NICHOLAS was universally proclaimed the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to-day—without a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and the home-like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors.

LOUISVILLE.....JUNE 23, 1860.

Opium an Antidote to Stramonium and Belladonna.

The Nashville Medical Record has an account of a little girl being poisoned by eating the seeds of the Jamestown weed, Datura stramonium.—The medical attendant discovered at once what was the cause of her sickness, and administered emetics; but vomiting could not be induced, the stomach having become insensible. The child was delirious, jaws rigid, pulse imperceptible and extremities cold. An emetic was administered, of half a drachm of landanum, in a tablespoonful of water, which speedily produced a beneficial effect, finally resulting in a perfect cure. Belladonna and stramonium are antidotes to opium, and vice versa. This is a useful discovery, and will doubtless be the means of saving many lives.

Wash your Fruit Trees.

The present is the time to cleanse all fruit trees that are troubled with the moss or with insects. Make a good strong wash of soap-suds, and with a swab of woolen rags give the body and large limbs of the trees a good washing.—After this has been done, the bark of the trees will put on a bright yellow-green look, changed entirely in appearance to the eye, the general health of the tree being greatly improved. Potash, three pounds to a barrel of water, will also make a good wash.

Worth Remembering.

Professor Maury says that an abundant growth of sunflowers was a perfect preventive of the fever and ague at the National Observatory.—While other localities, unprotected by the sunflowers, were visited by the malaria, the Observatory enjoyed immunity from the disease. He thinks that the sunflower, in its rank growth, absorbs the malaria and purifies the atmosphere.

Aloes for Aphis.

A writer in the Cottage Gardener says that four ounces of aloes and four ounces of soft soap dissolved in a gallon of soft water will kill all the species of aphides. Dip the shoots of infested trees or plants into the wash if you can, if not, syringe them with it.

Gather up the Bones.

It was stated a week or two since that a ship load of bones—human bones—the bones of the poor fellows who took part in the memorable siege of Sebastopol, bones of Frenchmen, Englishmen, and Italians, had arrived at one of our Eastern ports from the Crimea. The mind naturally rushes at this idea of employing these sad relics of brave soldiers, or indeed of any human beings, for the purposes of agriculture, and yet the fact that we are enabled to record the importation of a cargo of bones, whether human or animal, should be hailed as an omen of good. Hitherto the contrary has been the case; ship load after ship load has left our shores to fertilize the soils of England, while our own soils and crops have been suffering. Has this unpardonable drain of so large a portion of one of our most valuable fertilizing materials been checked at last, and have we determined that henceforth (however cheaply we may be disposed) England shall not have even a bone from us? Such were joyful tidings. "But why make such an ado about a few bones?" the anti-book farmer inquires. Good friend, we have not space in the brief article we purpose inditing to give you a full and satisfactory reply to your simple query. We will give you a few hints, however—a few very brief ones—which you can think over at your leisure; and if your objections to reading reliable books on agricultural chemistry are not invincible (if your inquiry has been prompted by a sincere desire to arrive at truth), they may possibly prompt you to purchase, or borrow, or beg some good treatise on bones, and con it over and over, and over again, until you are as familiar with it as with the alphabet.

Bones, good sir, are every where (at least in all agricultural countries) recognized as an economical and powerful manure. They may be applied to almost every kind of crop, but more portionlarly as a dressing for grass lands, and with decided benefit to turnip and wheat crops. Bone manure is not, perhaps, as actively stimulating as some others, but it possesses the great advantage of being both certain and lasting. From four to eight years is usually given to the period during which they act with marked benefit, but we have known instances in which their advantages were apparent for more than twenty years after their application.

Bones, when applied in small quantities, exercise a mechanical effect upon stiff soils, which is very beneficial. They render it lighter and more open, giving the atmosphere a chance to penetrate it more readily and impart its valuable fertilizing qualities to it. Besides all this, they possess great capacity for absorbing moisture from the atmosphere and holding it for the use of growing plants.

There, friend, that will do for the present. If you doubt the correctness of what has been stated, try a little experiment and satisfy yourself. Gather up the bones which have been lying around your premises from time immemorial, unsightly objects—gather them up, and be sure you do not forget the bones of the two horses and one cow which lie bleaching in the little wood at the lower end of your farm; you know precisely where they are, for you dragged the dead animals there. Perhaps you will remember it better if you are reminded of the extraordinary number of crows which fed upon the carcasses first, and upon your corn afterwards. But no matter, gather up all the bones you can find, and manage to crush them, or have them crushed. Apply some of them to your pasture land, at the rate of thirty bushels to the acre. Dig around that sickly looking grape vine in front of your house, and bury half a bushel of the bones a foot or so beneath the surface, or so that the roots of the vine will find them. When you put in your turnip crop, mark off a small portion of it and apply bones there. If, after you have done this, you have any left, put them on to a small corner of your wheat ground, and when your crops mature, compare the parts to which the bones have been applied with those to which none have been given; note carefully whether your grape vine has improved in vigor and productiveness, and let us have the results. If they are favorable, we will then endeavor to point out a method of preparing bones for use, which will render them more readily available by the crops to which you apply them, and will save you the labor of crushing them.—[E. R., in Philad. Farmer and Gard.

The Wheat Crop and the Wheat Midge.

The few wheat fields that we have seen in this section of Maine look extremely well thus far. They are all of the spring wheat variety, and were sowed rather late. Whether they are destined to be all devoured by the "midge" or "weevil," as it is called, will soon be determined. Hitherto this apparently insignificant insect has baffled all the art and skill of the farmer, and come off triumphant. The variations in the temperature and moisture, and other conditions of life, seasons have had more or less effect upon it. As the weather has been warm and pleasant for the last three or four weeks, and therefore favorable for the development of the crysalis in its progress of changing to the perfect, or fly state, it would not be surprising if there should be an abundance of them in our wheat fields this season; and if so, will, as in years past, do immense mischief.

They have, in a comparative sense, fairly driven our farmers from the field, and millions and millions of dollars would not repair the damage they have hitherto done, or make good the losses they have occasioned in Maine alone. Thirty years ago, wheat was among the surest and easiest crops our farmers could raise. Smut and rust were the only enemies this crop had to encounter. The first was prevented by thoroughly cleansing the seed before sowing it, and the latter by sowing early.

In some former numbers of our paper we gave most of the material facts which have been discovered in regard to the natural history of this scourge to the wheat grower, accompanied with engravings illustrative of its different stages of growth. As far as the mere history or facts of the several changes the midge undergoes, from the egg to the fly state, the researches of those who have undertaken it have been pretty thorough. The sum of it is, that the parent fly lays the egg into the bottom of the wheat blossom—that it there hatches a small worm, or maggot, about the time the kernel of the wheats gets into the milk state—that this worm pumps out the milk and pieces of the kernel for its food, and thereby prevents its filling and maturing—that the worm, having got its growth, either descends to the earth and forms a crysalis, or oftentimes remains in the chaff of the wheat and rolls itself up into a crysalis state—that it remains in this crysalis state in the ground, or in and among the chaff and straw of the wheat, until the succeeding season, when it comes out in the fly state and commences depositing its eggs in the blossoming wheat as heretofore. Some say, however, that the worm, or maggot, does not form the crysalis or "pupa" as it is called, until the June following, but remains in a dormant condition until then. Whether it does or does not, is not very material to the question of its ravages and the prevention of them. It has been found, we believe, to be the case that they are much more abundant in a field of wheat sown on ground occupied by wheat the year previous.

We have never heard of any experiments tried upon the soil with a view of destroying the dormant worm, or crysalis, while it is in the earth, and hardly know what course could be pursued which would destroy or dislodge them from their winter quarters. If it were certain that they bury themselves not more than an inch in depth, it is probable that burning the surface over might destroy some, if not all of them; but this would incur heavy expense in many cases, and in some locations be almost impossible.

With the exception of studying the changes which this insect undergoes, and giving a technical description of its external appearance and its distinctive marks, little has been done. More time and research are required in regard to it, in order to enable us to war against it with more success than has been hitherto had.

We ought to know how low a temperature the worm, or crysalis, can undergo and live. We ought to know for a certainty whether the worm, or maggot, can live on any other substance than the pieces of unripe grain; or, in other words, whether the instincts of the parent fly direct it to deposit its eggs in any other plant than grain. Some contend that it is found in clover and some other plants, while others say that the clover worm is entirely different. We ought to know whether the parent fly is capable of long extended flights, or whether it is confined to the immediate neighborhood of its birth. In short, we ought to know many more of its manners and customs, its likes and dislikes, than we now do, before we can be prepared to ward or prevent its attacks successfully. It is a battle with him for bread, and hitherto "midge" has beaten us.—[Maine Farmer.

Stand for Trailing Plants.

Take a piece of wood which may be turned or carved to make it ornamental (or it may have the bark on and varnished, or covered over by pasting on mosses and lichens). Place it upright, and from it extend three pieces of wire, bent somewhat like the arms of a chandelier, from each of which are suspended a tolerably large conch shell filled with earth, in which flowers are planted. The uppermost tier of arms must be quite short, and may be five in number. The next tier below may be longer, so as to extend beyond the uppermost, while the lowest one must be still longer. The shells may be attached or hung on by small copper wire, which may be passed around each shell. It will thus not be necessary to drill holes in the shells. Wooden arms will answer instead of the wires.

Osage Orange Topiary Work.

Although every one is aware that no plant bears the shears better than the Osage Orange, yet I am surprised that it is so seldom used for the decoration of formal or Italian gardens or topiary work.

If due attention is given to summer pruning, which has the effect of checking the rank and rampant growth of this plant, the finest effects may be obtained. Last season, while passing through the neatly kept grounds of the editor of the Horticulturist, the estimable proprietor asked me, in a jocular manner, what I thought of that specimen of tree box, pointing to a beautiful verdant hemisphere at the opposite side of the garden. After I had expressed great admiration of it, he informed me that it was an osage orange that had been but a very short time under treatment. He also informed me that he intended, if possible, to surmount it with the figure of an eagle or bird, and the legs were then visible in the form of two shoots, which had been allowed to grow from the apex of the globe.

I merely mention this fact to show how easily it can be brought into any desired shape, and to urge upon your readers to experiment with it.—[R. in Gardeners' Monthly.

How to Water Plants.

As a rule, water should never be given until the further withholding of it would be detrimental to the plants. Habitual watering does, in the majority of cases, more harm than good. Plants left to battle with drouth, send their roots down deep in search of moisture, and when rain does come, they benefit more by it than those that have had regular waterings all along. If the ground is dug deeply and kept in good tilth, and has once since got established will bear drouth for any length of time, but things lately planted, and that have not had time to "get hold," must be kept supplied, or their beauty may vanish for all the season. Succulent vegetables, too, which ought to be kept growing quick, must have abundance, and, of course, plants in pots must, of necessity, have sufficient. There are two important points to be attended to in giving water: one is to expose the water to the sun before using it, to render it soft and warm, and the other is to give a thorough soaking at once, sufficient to keep the ground moist a week. Supposing the supply to be limited, but regular, the best way of economizing both water and time, is to take the garden piece by piece, watering each piece thoroughly every evening, and then beginning again as at first.—[Floral World and Garden Guide.

ECONOMY OF DYING STRUGGLES.—Irving used to tell a story illustrative of the Yankee talent at "making things pay." A man who sent turkeys to market also swept chimneys for a living; tying a cord around the neck of a bird so as not to choke it to death, and fastening the bird up and down the chimney, so that the flutter of the expiring struggle might do the sweeping. The papers tell us also that there is a grocer in Pennsylvania who is said to be so mean that he was seen to catch a fly on his counter, hold him up the light to see, and count into the cracks of his feet to see if he hadn't been stealing some of his sugar.

Altamont, Pitts;	Telegraph, Cin:
Cay City, St. Louis;	Glendale, Memphis;
Woodford, N. O;	Grey Eagle, Henderson:

THE RIVER continues to recede steadily and rather fast, considering the low state of water, with four feet seven inches in the canal last evening by the mark. During the previous twenty-four hours the river had fallen two inches at the head of the falls, which was six inches at Portland. The weather is clear, dry and warm, though somewhat cooler last evening.

The river is falling at Pittsburg and all points below, and the channel hard to find, with boats aground at Bleunerhassett, Marietta, and Buffington.

Along the lower Ohio, the Atlantic, the latest arrival from New Orleans, reports but seven and a half feet water at Flint Island, and the river falling. The exactly coincides with the marks of Capt. Lockhart, the superintendent of the canal.

Above Cincinnati the last arrivals report barely four feet water on the bars. The Pittsburg Journal, of Thursday, has the following:

The only arrival beyond the regular packets was the Mariner, from St. Louis, while the Mary Cook, for Cincinnati, and Wheeling boats constituted the departures. The river continues to fall. The great majority of the boats now at the landing have laid up for the season.

The Poland, from Cincinnati, was the only arrival on Wednesday. The St. Louis, for Louisville, was the only departure.

☞ The following river items are from the Memphis Appeal of Wednesday. It knocks Arkansas down again:

The river is declining slowly at this point. Boatmen have abandoned all hope of an immediate rise in the Arkansas river. The Frontier City arrived from that stream yesterday, and her officers report that there had been a rise of two or three inches at Little Rock, and that the water had then commenced receding again.

The John Tompkins, which departed for Pittsburg last evening, took 200 bales cotton.

The Frontier City, which arrived from the Arkansas river yesterday, was brought here to be transferred to her new owners, but the contracting party failed to come to terms, and the trausfer was not made.

The N. W. Thomas passed down yesterday with a barge of lee in tow, for Natchez, without landing.

THE ATLANTIC—FOR NEW ORLEANS THIS EVENING.—The Atlantic arrived from New Orleans early yesterday morning, barely five and a half days out, full of passengers, cabin and deck, the very best trip of any boat this season. She had one hundred and fifty in the cabin and two hundred and fifty on deck, not counting those pat off on the way. She encountered much detention by low water in the Ohio, and a terrific storm Wednesday night, compelling her to lie by six hours. Her time out to Cairo, including some fifty odd landings, was just inside of four days, passing the Ed. J. Gay, that started twenty-four hours ahead. The Atlantic made seventy landings on the trip, commencing taking in passengers on the coast, and then receiving and putting off people at every prominent point to this port.

The Atlantic, in charge of the gallant McGill, the most popular boatman in the trade, returns to New Orleans this evening. She starts at 5 o'clock, from Portland, and being able to take but a limited amount of freight from this port, owing to the low water, will depart punctually at the hour. The clerks are one accomplished young friends John Woolfolk and Dick Ferguson.

☞ The John Raine, from New Orleans, as we learn by special dispatch from Henry McDougal, the gallant clerk, was at Vicksburg early yesterday morning, full of passengers. She is due next Tuesday, and returns to New Orleans Wednesday evening.

☞ The Atlantic left New Orleans last Saturday, nearly a week later than the Diana—was full of passengers all the way—having fully 400 on the boat, cabin and deck, and nothing like yellow fever was heard of. In fact, but one single case had been reported in the Charity Hospital, New Orleans.

We hope the papers that gave currency to the silly report of deaths by yellow fever on the Diana, will promptly correct it.

☞ The Maclay arrived at St. Louis Wednesday, and the Anglo Saxon departed.

☞ The Melnotte, Clara Dean, and Courier have laid up at Wheeling, on account of low water.

☞ The officers of the Texas, that arrived at New Orleans, Tuesday, from Shreveport, report Red river falling at every point. There was three feet water on Lecompte bar, with the same depth on the falls.

☞ Mr. Thornton Jacobs, of Shreveport, has purchased the Reub Whitney, the price paid was $2,500. She will be placed in the Red river trade.

☞ The Cambridge, from Pittsburg, passed Marietta on Thursday.

☞ We understand that it is the intention of the Messrs. Shock & Horbach to purchase one or more boats to run between Memphis and Southern ports during the coming season.—[Memphis Avalanche.

FOR MEMPHIS.—The fine side wheel, light draught packet Gen. Pike came in from Memphis last evening, and returns to that port this evening. She starts at 5 o'clock, from Portland, in charge of Capt. J. M. Martin, of this city, a careful, courteous boatman, who will take freight and passengers to all points along the route.

☞ The light side wheeler Bracelet, in charge of Capt. Caffrey, with our clever friend Duvall in the office, is the regular punctual packet for Evansville and all way places this evening.

☞ The new Red river boat for Capt. Puckett is expected to be launched from the New Albany ship yard this evening.

☞ Capt. Sam. Montgomery contemplates taking the Republic out to Cairo this evening to await the opening of the fall campaign in the cotton trade. She will probably tow the hull of the Eclipse to Cairo.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette, of yesterday, has the following in regard to boats in that quarter:

The Economy has laid up here for repairs, and we learn that she will run as a low water packet between this port and St. Louis during the summer in command of Capt. Frank Batchelor.

The Universe reshipped her New Orleans freight on the Silver Wave yesterday, and has laid up for the present.

The Locomte and Messenger have also laid up at this port, the former to be dismantled and the latter repaired.

The following steamers were at the landing last evening: The Economy, Messenger, Conewago, Cheeaman, Lebanon, Decatur, Lady Pike, Universe, Grand Turk, Glenwood, Silver Wave, and Locomte.

THE CHANCELLOR.—This substantial low water packet having been detained taken her departure to New Orleans this evening, at 5 o'clock, from Portland. She has nearly a full load engaged, and Capt. Malborn will go without fail, and will keep her on the track all summer. The clerk is Mr. Foster, who is always right and attentive.

DROWNED.—On the downward trip of the steamer D. B. Campbell, on Monday night, about twenty miles below Bowling Green, a deck hand, named John Roe, fell overboard, and. it is thought, was drowned.

☞ At Cairo the arrivals of freights continue to amount to about one hundred tons daily.

☞ Mr. J. S. Relf has been chosen director of the New Orleans and Bayou Sara Mail Company, in lace of Capt. J. A. Cotten, deceased.

☞ The Jacob Strader, the leviathan low-pressure, is the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati and the East at noon to-day. This will probably be her last trip.

COAL BOATS AGROUND.—We learn that a pair of large coal boats, going South, belonging to Murphy & Hyatt, of this city, were aground last below Uniontown in the Ohio, and will have to be lightened off. Lighters will be dispatched to them to-day.

SALT MOVING.—The Bay City came in yesterday with two barges of salt for St. Louis, and the Baltimore tow boat came in from Pomeroy with a fleet of salt.

A regular line of light draft packets will ply regularly to New Orleans during the summer, comprising the steamer Silver Wave, Ft. Wayne, Jesse A. Bell, Stephen Decatur, J. C. Fremont, J. S. Pringle, Aurora, and J. W. Cheesman.

☞ The New Orleans Delta of last Tuesday has the annexed report from Red river boats:

Not quite as agreeable is the fact that two more Red river boats have laid up, namely: The Era No. 3 and the Texas. The cause assigned is not want of water, but lack of business for the present. There was only one Red river boat at the landing doing anything yesterday, and not much at that. Above Canal street, business looks a trifle better.

☞ This has been the month of storms, one of which reached Mobile last Friday, forcing the James Battle from her moorings, consisting of three inch hawsers and a heavy chain cable, and for several minutes the future pet of the Alabama river seemed to be in great danger. The wind capsized eight of the boats in the Regatta, and the schooner Pioneer, probably drowning two men. The St. Charles, St. Nicholas, Carondolet, Natchez, the hull of the Lucy Robinson, and a barge, moored at the wharves on the opposite side of the city, broke their moorings and were blown against the steamer Legrand, staving in her wheelhouse, the rest going down below and coming in contact with the Battle.

AGREEMENT.

THE Coal Proprietors of Hawesville, Ky., and Cannelton, Ind., having fell review of the operations in the coal business during the past season, at these points, are satisfied that the business, with its necessary facilities for delivery to steamboats, cannot be sustained at a price less than seven cts. per bushel. Believing that the price will be just and fair both to the seller and consumer, and at the same time maintain the business upon a basis correspondent to its importance and merit, we have mutually agreed that after this date seven Cents per bushel will be the uniform price for which Coal will be sold to Steamboats at our respective Coal yards, and to avoid all future misunderstanding, and that all boats may receive Coal at a uniform price, it is agreed that the sale of any order or obligation for the delivery of Coal, by which the consumer pays less than Seven Cents per bushel, will be deemed a violation of this agreement.

The Democratic National Convention

Friday's Proceedings.

BALTIMORE, June 22d.—The Convention assembled at 10 o'clock, promptly—the theater being densely crowded.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Swartz.

Mr. Wright, of Missouri, moved that the journal of yesterday's proceedings be read.

Mr. Cook, of Ohio, moved to dispense with the reading. The position of the question could not be understood by the chair.

The reading was dispensed with.

The chair, after preliminary remarks relating to the convenience of the delegates, stated that the main question had been ordered.

The Secretary then read the motions in their order.

The Chair then stated that the question would be first taken on the report of Mr. Gittings, of Maryland, adopting the whole majority report excepting in the case of Alabama, and admitting in that state the original Charleston delegates.

Mr. Krum, of Missouri, on a question of privilege, stated that in the haste of report errors occurred in some of the names of the delegates in all the reports. He asked consent to have them corrected.

Mr. Sibley, of Minnesota, inquired whether, under the rules adopted by the Convention, it was in order for the Chairman of the Committee on Credentials to be heard in the close of the debate, even after the main question had been ordered.

Mr. Gittings, of Maryland, asked consent to withdraw the first part of the report so as to have before the Convention, as his report only, the resolution admitting the Yancey delegates from Alabama. In so doing, he stated that it had been rumored outside that his report had been made in consequence of the rejection of Mr. Yancey, while the fact admitted that Mr. Yancey was the most fascinating man he ever met, yet, those who believed such influences dictated his report, knew little of him as a man, or of his principles as a Democrat.

Mr. Wright, of Massachusetts, raised a point of order that no motion had ever been made to adopt Mr. Gittings' report as an amendment.

The President decided the point of order not well taken, saying that the report took the position of an amendment to the majority report.

Mr. Wright, of Massachusetts, objected to the withdrawal of the first part of Mr. Gittings' report.

Mr. Gittings then asked consent to withdraw his whole report, which was granted, thus bringing the minority report proper first in order.

Mr. Krum, of Missouri, on behalf of the majority of the committee, asked leave to file a statement of the reasons for their conclusions in the report.

Mr. Wright, of Massachusetts, objected.

Mr. Sibley, of Minnesota, asked whether an objection could prevent the reading of the statement of the reasons for their conclusions in the case.

The Chair then stated that the question would be first taken on the report of Mr. Gittings, of Maryland, adopting the whole majority report excepting in the case of Alabama, and admitting in that state the original Charleston delegates.

Mr. Gittings then asked consent to withdraw his whole report, which was granted, thus bringing the minority report proper first in order.

Mr. Krum, of Missouri, on behalf of the majority of the committee, asked leave to file a statement of the reasons for their conclusions in the report.

Mr. Wright, of Massachusetts, objected.

Mr. Sibley, of Minnesota, asked whether an objection could prevent the reading of the statement would be waived the right to speak in conclusion of the debate.

Mr. Wright, of Mass., still objected, when the gentleman from Missouri commenced his speech. He should raise a point of order that there was no debate on the question yesterday, and therefore there could be no right of reply.

Mr. Clark, of Mo., called attention to the remarks of Messrs. Phillips and Stevens, of Oregon, yesterday, which certainly made a debate on the report.

The President decided that the debate had taken place, and gave the floor to Mr. Krum.

Mr. Krum then read a statement giving his reasons for the conclusions of the majority of the Committee on Credentials. He argued that the secession of delegates did create vacancies and trouble. The resolutions adopted at the Charleston Convention recognized such vacancies and called on the States to fill them. The minority of the committee, while denying that vacancies exist, proceed to render their argument absurd by filling those very vacancies.—The States themselves had recognized vacancies by reorganizing and re-assembling delegations in Baltimore. The credentials of the Mississippi delegates bore on their face the fact that they were appointed on the 30th of May, and many were new names. The Alabama credentials of the delegates bore on their face the date of their appointment, not to this Convention, but to Reornmond; and lower down they were accredited to this Convention. They might as well have been appointed also to the Chicago Convention; but what man would desire to be admitted on such a roving commission to a Democratic Convention?

The statement proceeded to give similar reasons for the admission of the Soulé delegation from Louisiana, and a compromise of the delegations from the other States.

Mr. Brown, of North Carolina, rose to speak, but was called to order by a delegate from Maine, who said there was no debatable question before the Convention. The President ruled out of order.

Mr. Stevens, of Oregon, rose to make a personal explanation.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, objected.

The President. The gentleman from Michigan objecting, the Chair must enforce the rules of order.

Mr. Stevens. I appeal to the gentleman from Michigan to withdraw his objection.

Mr. Stuart. No gentleman will go further than myself in granting personal favor, but the business of the Convention has already been delayed so long that I cannot withdraw my objection.

The President stated that a call had been made for a division on the question. He ruled, as the motion was to strike out and insert, it was inadmissable.

Mr. John Cochrane held that, while a motion to strike out and insert was inadmissable, yet it only applied to separate propositions—to strike out one indivisible proposition and insert another. This being a motion to substitute one series of propositions for another series, he held it was divisible.

The President, while expressing some doubt, maintained his original decision.

The question was then taken on the substitute of the whole minority report, by Mr. Stevens, of Oregon, for the whole majority report.

The vote was called by States, and resulted as follows:

Maine—Ayes, 2½; nays, 5½.
New Hampshire—Ayes, ¼; nays, 4¾.
Vermont—Ayes, 1½; nays, 3½.
Massachusetts—Ayes, 8; nays, 5.
Rhode Island—Nays, 4.
Connecticut—Ayes, 2½; nays, 3½.
New York—Nays, 35.
New Jersey—Ayes, 4; nays, 3.
Pennsylvania—Ayes, 17; nays, 10.
Maryland—Ayes, 6¼; nays, 2¾, and one delegate declining to vote.
Virginia—Ayes, 14; nays, 1.
North Carolina—Ayes, 9; nays, 1.
Arkansas—Ayes, ½; nays, ½.
Missouri—Ayes, 5; nays, 4.
Tennessee—Ayes, 10; nays, 1.
Kentucky—Ayes, 10; nays, 2.
Ohio—Nays, 23.
Indiana—Nays, 13.
Illinois—Nays, 9.
Michigan—Nays, 6.
Wisconsin—Nays, 5.
Iowa—Nays, 4.
Minnesota—Ayes, 1½; nays, 2½.
California—Ayes, 4.
Oregon—Ayes, 3.

Total—Ayes, 100½; nays, 150.

So the motion to substitute Mr. Stevens' minority report for the majority report was lost.

The Chair having regnested that no expression of applause or dissent should be indulged in, the result was received in silence.

The vote then recurred on the adoption of the majority report.

Mr. Church, of New York, and Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, called for a division of the question on each proposition.

The question was then put on the first resolution of the majority report, admitting the original delegates from Mississippi, which was carried nearly unanimously, the only negative votes being two from Pennsylvania and one and a half from Iowa. Half the vote of Massachusetts declined to vote.

Capt. Rynders, of New York—Mississippi having been admitted to seats, I move that they be admitted at once. [Cries of "No, no;" "Yes, yes."]

Capt. Rynders—Well, I don't care whether you cry "no" or "yes;" I make the motion.

Mr. Cochrane, of New York, raised a point of order, that the report was not adopted till adopted as a whole.

The President—No motion is before the Convention—the operation of the previous question preventing it.

A delegate inquired whether the Chair would issue tickets to admit the Mississippi delegates.

The President replied that he was under the direction of the Convention in that respect.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, objected to any business but the questions before the Convention.

A vote was then taken on the second resolution of the majority report, admitting the Soulé delegates from Louisiana. The vote is precisely the reverse of that on the rejection of the minority report, except the following States:

Vermont—Ayes, 4½; nays, ½.
New Jersey—Ayes, 2½; nays, 4½.
Maryland—Ayes, 2½; nays, 5½.
Virginia—Ayes, 11; nays, 10.
North Carolina—Ayes, 2; nays, 8.
Tennessee—Ayes, 2; nays, 10.

Total—Ayes, 153; nays, 98. So the second resolution was adopted.

The question was then taken on the third resolution of the majority report, admitting Mr. Hooper and his colleagues from Arkansas, with power to cast two votes, and Mr. Hooper and his colleagues. The contestants, with power to cast one vote, and providing that if either of the delegates refuse to take their seats, the other shall be entitled to cast the whole vote of the State.

Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware, called for a division of this resolution, so as to take a vote on the proposition contained therein.

The President decided the resolution divisible.

The question was taken upon the three several propositions. First, on the admission of the Hindman delegation; second, on the admission of the Hooper delegation; and third, giving the power to one set to cast the whole vote of the State if the other set withdrew. All were adopted. A vote was then taken on the fourth resolution of the majority report, admitting the original delegation from the State of Texas; adopted—only 2½ votes in the negative; 2 from Pennsylvania, and ½ from Iowa.

A vote was then taken on the fifth resolution, admitting Messrs. Bayard and Whitely, of Delaware. The resolution was adopted without a division.

The resolution giving Mr. R. L. Chaffee the seat in the Massachusetts delegation, contested by Hon. B. F. Hallet, was then adopted: 138 to 111.

Mr. Stuart, at this point made a motion to reconsider each vote and lay the same on the table, it being understood that the motion was not to be put until votes on all the propositions had been taken.

The 7th resolution of the majority, declaring Mr. O'Fallon intitled to the seat in the Missouri delegation claimed by John B. Clancy, was then adopted—138½ to 112.

Mr. Cessna, of Pennsylvania, moved to reconsider the vote and lay the resolution on the table; laid over.

The 8th resolution admitting the contesting delegates from Alabama was next adopted—148½ to 101½.

Mr. Cessna moved to reconsider the vote, and to lay that resolution on the table; laid over.

The question being on the 9th and last resolution of the majority report, admitting both delegations from Georgia, and dividing the vote of the State between them with the provision that if either refused to take seats the remaining delegates shall cast the vote of the State—a division of the question was called for, so as to take a vote on each proposition separately. A long discussion ensued before the vote was taken.

Mr. Gardner, of Georgia, presented a letter from the National Democratic delegates from Georgia, and asked that it be read [Cries of "Read!" "No, no!"]

Mr. Butterworth, of New York, objected.

Mr. Clancy, of New York, inquired if one objection would prevent the reading.

The President—It will in this stage of the proceedings. The gentleman from Georgia can rise to a question of privilege and read the communication, and the chair will then decide whether he is in order or not.

The call for a division of the resolutions was withdrawn, and the resolution was lost; 106½ to 145. New York voted in the negative.

The whole majority report was then adopted except the last resolution, dividing the State of Georgia between the original delegates and contestants, which was lost; 106½ to 145. New York voting no.

Mr. Church, of New York, then took the floor, and said, that the New York delegation have had no opportunity to vote on the case of Georgia, as they deemed justice to the Democracy of that State required. Coming here with an earnest desire to harmonize the Democracy of the Union, and act in a manner which will meet the approbation of Democrats all over the country, New York desires that the original delegation from Georgia be admitted to seats on this floor. He called for the previous question.

Mr. Seward, of Ga., raised a point of order, that the only motion in order was on the adoption of the resolutions already adopted as a whole.

The President decided that the previous question was exclnded, and no vote on the adoption of the resolutions as a whole is necessary.

Mr. Hallett, of Massachusetts, rose to address the Convention.

Mr. Cochrane moved that when the Convention adjourn it be till 5 o'clock.

A vote by States was demanded on this resolution, and declared lost—ayes, 83½; nays, 165.

Mr. Cessna called for the consideration of the motion to reconsider the several propositions—which was adopted—and also to lay these motions on the table.

Mr. Vanderford, of Maryland, moved that when the Convention adjourn it be sine die. Declared out of order.

The question was then put, first on the motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the majority report of Mr. Stevens, of Oregon, was rejected. The Convention refused to lay the motion of reconsideration on the table by 113½ to 138½, New York voting no and the most intense excitement.

Mr. Cochrane then rapidly put the motion for a recess till 7 o'clock, which was carried, amid the consternation of the Northwestern men and the reviving hopes of the South.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 7 o'clock with a crowded audience. Much interest was excited by the proceedings, and heightened by the prevalence of a report that Mr. Douglas had telegraphed to withdraw his name, which was known only to a few.

As soon as the Convention was called to order quite a congressional struggle for the floor took place. Messrs. Saulsbury, of Del., Cessna, of Pa., and Gunnon, of Miss., rising simultaneously, the floor was given to Mr. Saulsbury, who corrected the vote of Delaware, as given in the evening papers. They represented Delaware as voting for the admission of the Soule delegates from Louisiana. The Delaware delegation did not so vote, but voted for the admission of the original delegates.

Mr. Church not withdrawing his demand for the previous question, it was ordered, and the resolution admitting the Charleston delegates from Georgia was adopted.

Mr. Hallett, of Massachusetts, then took the floor. He moved to reconsider the ninth resolution.

A number of points of order were raised, and a warm skirmish took place.

Mr. Smith, of Wisconsin, raised a point of order that Mr. Hallett had not been a delegate in the Convention. Mr. Chaffee was the delegate recognized and admitted to the Charleston Convention, and Mr. Hallett's name does not appear on the record.

Mr. Hallett desired to speak on a point of order. He was a delegate, regularly appointed, and being detained by sickness in his family, had requested Mr. Chaffee, as his substitute, to attend. He had prepared papers for that purpose in the sick chamber of his wife, without trouble to Mr. Chaffee, and probably without his being able to understand them.

Mr. Stuart and others called Mr. Hallett to order, and considerable confusion existed until the chair awarded the floor to Mr. Hallett.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, moved to lay the vote to reconsider on the table.

Mr. Cochrane moved that when the Convention adjourn it be till 5 o'clock.

A vote by States was demanded on this resolution, and declared lost—ayes, 83½; nays, 165.
